

Mark and Cheryl's Adventure

A picnic in the jungle

By Mark & Cheryl

www.ambient.org.uk

One day Mark and Cheryl went for a picnic in the jungle.

In the picnic were drinks, coke, orange, egg sandwiches ham sandwiches and yogurts.

Also, the monkeys, rhino's, orangutans, penguins meerkats, tigers and spiders.

A Sealion, (who was evil) stole the picnic and all the food.

Mark said he was naughty Cheryl said he was bad.

Mark and Cheryl try to get the food back Cheryl see's the sealion up in a very high tree.

Mark tries to climb the tree, but a gorilla who was at the picnic says he will climb the tree.

Mark goes under the gorilla's arm and climbs the tree as well. Cheryl watches the Sealion.

She stands under the tree to catch the food.

Mark and the gorilla catch the sealion and say, "Give me the food back".

The sealion says He! He! He!, you are not having the food back. The sealion who has no arms only flippers drops the food into an ants nest.

The picnic is ruined.

Mark and Cheryl walk back to their friends and say "the picnic is off ", but they see a building through the trees.

Mark is so surprised to see a parrot going into the building.

Mark and Cheryl saw it was a bakery.

They go into the bakery and see a bull called Paddy behind the counter.

And a peacock making bread.

THE END

Cheryl says, "The picnic is on".

But the sealion comes back and says, "I am hungry and hurt after falling out of the tree".

He asks for some bread.

Cheryl says "Yes" and so the sealion joins in with the picnic. Cheryl says "you can come, but you must share."